

March 2008

Epos is delighted to announce the Australian release of the new Epos Mi speaker range.

These speakers offer improvements over the earlier range, both sonically and cosmetically. They are available in three separate real wood finishes, black ash, cherry and red cherry. The range consists of four stereo pairs and one centre channel. The existing M subwoofer remains current with this new range.

Full details can be accessed via the individual product pages

